Abundant Life

Every now and then you have “one of those days” as a clergy person. Not the kind that means everything has gone wrong but rather the kind of day that reminds you what life is really about. I had one such day this summer. In the space of twenty four hours I read the prayers for the Dying for individuals who were in the process of death, visited members and friends of the parish who were in the hospital, said a blessing for a new born child, helped a parishioner in dire personal straits, and worked on planning an upcoming wedding. All this while trying to keep up the daily tasks the are needed to keep a parish like Trinity running.

Days like that are overwhelming in just about every category I can think of. They are exhausting physically, mentally and spiritually. At the end of the day there is a sense of pride in having achieved a great deal. And yet, there can be a deeper message found in them as well.

Praise be to God that such days are few and far between. I know that every clergy person I speak to has had them, and I expect that every profession has their own version as well. Days like that cause you to work your way through the breadth of the vocation to which have been called or have chosen. They are reminders to each of us of what we are about in our working lives.

And yet... Even though it feels like we’ve been all the way to the top of the mountain and come back down, there is more that we have probably missed. So much of the experience of that day this summer focused on “work” and not on “home” or “family”. In the day I had, there was little time to sit down to a meal with my family. There was no time to put my feet up and relax with a good book. I came home late, made a quick snack for dinner and went right away to a computer to start catching up on what I had not managed to cover during the hours of the work-day.

Trinity is a praying church. We love to pray for people...and we keep on praying for them. But sometimes, people get "parked" on the parish prayer list. The policy is to put people on the Prayers of the People list and to read their names for two weeks in a row, UNLESS you ask us to keep them on. They will also be put on the prayer list in the Bulletin. We keep them on the Bulletin list for two months, UNLESS you ask us to keep them on. We are very happy to keep people on either or both lists, but please do tell us. Call the office or give a note to one of the clergy.

KEEP ON PRAYING!

Celebration of Saints During September

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

In looking back and reflecting on the day I recognize that even though I thought I had experienced the complete expression of life that day, I was missing at least half of what my life truly is. My life is more than just "what I do for a living." My life includes that, but there is actually more. Life includes the people you love, the community in which you live, and the hobbies and activities which bring inner refreshment and renewal. I have a tendency to forget this truth, and I think I did just that on my busy day this summer.

I'm guessing that I'm not alone in all this. I expect that many of you reading this note often find yourselves over-focusing on one aspect or another of your whole life. For some that focus may be on work, for others on home-life, for others on friends and for some on hobbies. But almost no matter what aspect it is, we inevitably tend to over-focus on one piece of our lives to the detriment of the others.

I don't believe this sort of lack of balance is what Jesus wants for us in our earthly lives. The unbalanced nature of our common experience tends to cause parts of lives to become vestigial over time and given enough time those aspects can wither away and be lost forever. People lose contact with their friends, their family, the activities that they love to do, the joy they used to feel at completing a hard task at work. Jesus calls us to have life and to have it abundantly. I don't think that losing meaningful pieces of our lives to neglect is what Jesus means when he says "have life abundantly".

I write these words to you this month because September is the time of year when we talk about life getting back to "normal". School resumes after the summer holiday. People return to the office from vacation. Local committees and boards restart their regular meeting schedules. People settle back into the routine that will carry them through to the next round of holidays. We tend to make yearly resolutions about changing our lives in January - but in truth the days when we can best effect changes in our lives are found now as we return to what is normal.

As you once again pick up that routine this year, ask yourself if you are living your life to the fullness that Christ asks of you. If you find things missing, or parts of your life slowly fading away, now is the time to begin to put matters aright. Make your resolutions now and ask God's grace that you keep them. May God grant you the wisdom to recognize what it is that God wants to be in your life, and may God grant you the will and purpose to keep those life giving pieces close to hand.

Blessings on you this month.

--Nick+

From the Music Office

Dear Members and Friends of Trinity Church,

With Labor Day just around the corner, it is time to start thinking about our upcoming choir year.

Regular choir rehearsals resume on Thursday evening, September 8th at 7:00 p.m. We rehearse each week at this time for two hours, and work on a wide variety of music for the Sunday service and music for special services and concerts. If you are interested in joining the choir this year, please give me a call at the church at 610-876-4741, or send me an email at Lorenz@trinitybeth.org so we can set up an appointment to try out your voice. All voice parts, soprano, alto, tenor and bass are welcome. This will be an exciting year of singing. Read on for more details:

The 2005-2006 concert series starts with a BANG in a weekend of three exciting events celebrating the 50th Anniversary of Trinity's Aeolian-Skinner pipe organ. Mark your calendars and tell all your friends and loved ones!

You won't want to miss this historic weekend in the life of Trinity Church! It will be memorable.

Sincerely,
Lorenz Maycher,
Organist-Choirmaster

Trinity's
Children's Choir

On July 10th members of our Children's Choir gathered at the Schatkowski home for a pool party. Everyone enjoyed pizza and sodas after the swimming was finished.

We plan to begin our 2005-2006 season on Sunday, September 11th at 9:15 a.m. We look forward to our fifth year of existence and welcome back Mary's very capable assistant, Wendy Lega and accompanist, Gavin Ferriby, who has supported us so ably these past four years!

Any child who enjoys singing and is 5 to 11 years old (a mature 4 year old is acceptable) is invited to join our group. We follow the Sunday School schedule, meeting when Sunday School is in session. We try to sing an anthem once a month and special music at the family Christmas Eve service.

Children who participate in our choir will find their singing voices, learn about good vocal tone, be introduced to music of the church, and learn to sing beautiful songs.

If you would like additional information, please contact the director, Mary Schatkowski at 610-868-8203 or schatkow@fast.net.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Newsletter people,
I am taking this opportunity to thank you for sending me The Newsletter as I send you my changed address.

I read The Newsletter with great pleasure and have a feeling of warmth and pride as I learn about what my church is doing.

Then I think of my high school senior dashing down the alley on Sunday morning so he won't be late to carry the Cross. He still declares he never was.

Sincerely,
Ej Houghton

Myerstown, PA 17067

Monthly Animal Food Bank Update

The animal food bank is a monthly distribution of pet food to pets of needy owners. The animal food bank has been going on for four months and in that time we have served over 80 animals of different varieties. In addition to two pet food manufacturers, many people at Trinity have donated over the past four months. Right now we are in need of cat litter, as well as dry dog and cat food. Please remember the animals when you shop. Thanks again.

—Vanessa Segaline

Daughters of the King

There will be an informational meeting held in the library on Wednesday, September 7th, following the 9:30 a.m. Eucharist.

Musikfest parking fundraiser a success

Thanks to the efforts of 28 volunteers, the Musikfest parking team raised almost $1,900 to be used for Outreach activities. Our volunteers endured blazing heat and spotty patronage during the day time shifts due to the high temperatures throughout the week. Many thanks to our long time organizers of this event who have passed the torch this year, Bill Harding and Susan Ferry. Thanks also to Dennis Perkins and Gaby Whittier for assistance throughout the week. Finally special recognition to our volunteers who worked multiple shifts - George Hurchalla, Bill Winterburn, Marius Bressoud, Sara Klingner, Sandy Mesics, and Suzanne Boundy (plus anyone else I missed).

Outreach Opportunities

Children books wanted

Give your retired children's books a renewed purpose. The children we are helping in our Swaziland relief efforts have limited access to books. Continue the joy and learning your children receive from reading by donating some of the books they have outgrown to the Swaziland effort. A box will be placed outside the Sanctuary on Sundays this month for collection. For more information contact the church office.

Prayer Beaders

The Prayer Beads Ministry is creating prayer beads for the Swaziland Hospice workers. Our goal is to make 3000 strings of prayer beads for the Hospice Volunteers to use as they work with those suffering from HIV/AIDS. If this is something you would like to do, please contact Gaby in the church office.

All Will Be Revealed?

Howard Fegan will be leading a Bible study series on the book of Revelation. This is one of the books that is least understood and most misused in our culture. We shall be trying to take it seriously and find out just what is in it. Study involves more than just reading the book: we also need some guidance. To help us in our quest we shall be using as a resource a book from the Anglican Association of Biblical Scholars Study Series: "Conversations with Scripture: Revelation" by Frederick W. Schmidt (Publishers: Morehouse; ISBN 0-8192-2107-4; list price $12.95) . This book was written to aid congregations in Bible study and is quite readable. It neither trivializes the topic nor buries it in a mass of technical jargon (for a review see below).

Our tentative program is for five sessions to be held on various Monday evenings, from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m.

- Session 1: September 26: An overview of the ways to approach Revelation (Schmidt chapters 1,2 &3)
- Session 2: October 3: A Deeper Reality (Schmidt chapter 4)
- Session 3: October 10: A Different Kind of Time (Schmidt chapter 5)
- Session 4: October 17: A Choice of Two Cities (Schmidt chapter 6)
- Session 5: October 24: Conclusion – an open discussion of the question "what does it mean for us today?"

Books must be ordered in advance, and if we have enough for a bulk order, the cost will be less. If you would like to order a book, please see Mother Laura or leave a check for her made out to Trinity Episcopal Church. Some help is available if the cost of the book is a difficulty.

Review

"An exciting new resource in the area of Adult Christian Formation, Frederick W. Schmidt's Revelation is smart and accessible. The sidebar definitions, suggested resources and accompanying study questions provide clear guideposts into the not often entered world of apocalyptic literature. With a keen sense of Anglican theological heritage, Schmidt creates a welcome mat and friendly companion on the road to a more intimate knowledge of God's revelation through scripture. His use of personal anecdotes, fine scholarship and conversational tone make this début volume in the Conversations With Scripture series a compelling read and Bible study resource for laypeople. A sure success for parish based study groups."

PLAYGROUP NEWS

Trinity's Playgroup will meet again the 2nd and 4th Friday of the month.

This month: September 8th and 22nd from 9:30 to 10:30am. We gather downstairs in the nursery to play ...please join us!

Friends,

Over the past year Father MacMillan has recorded life experiences. My role is to convert those recordings to the printed page. Unfortunately, in view of my hearing handicap, some of that material is undecipherable. Is there someone out there with normal hearing who will assist with this transcribing process?

TRINITY GROUP

INVOLVING

FAMILIES

We're off on an overnight! Once again our Parenting group will be heading to Kirby House on Friday, September 16th. Don't know about TGIF? Trinity's Group Involving Families is a support group for families at Trinity with children from newborn through middle school. TGIF will meet for dinner, worship and other special activities. This will be our second trip to Kirby House. Interested in being a part of TGIF, let Claire know claire@trinitybeth.org. There will be no other TGIF gatherings in September. Stay tuned for October's updates!

FORUM BEGINS SEPTEMBER 11

Adult Forum begins the new year on September 11, at 9:15, with a series of intriguing topics. This year, our underlying theme will be Theology, although we will have other topics as well.

September 11: "What I did on my summer sabbatical."

Mother Laura will report on her sabbatical experiences, which, she says, range from chaplaining a mountain search and rescue mission in Mt. Baldy, California; to presenting a paper at a national conference of Benedictines in South Dakota; to a retreat on early church theology in Indiana.

On September 18 and 25, Fr. Nick and Pete Lega will be talking about "Cyber-safety", what you need to know to keep yourself, your family and your computer safe.

In October, Gavin Ferriby will be doing a three-part series on European Protestant theology since the Reformation.

Oct. 2: "The Reformation: the perplexity of Scripture"

Oct. 9: "Liberal theology in the 19th century: even more perplexity of Scripture"

October 16: "Karl Barth and turning away from 'liberal theology'"

On October 23 Dr. Charles Callahan will be talking about "History of Trinity Church's Aeolian-Skinner Pipe Organ and the Evolution of the American Classic Organ", in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of *our* organ.

On October 30, Fr. Nick will discuss "Where are we now? The Episcopal Church and the Anglican Communion."
