

Prayers of the People – Easter - ABC

Intercessor (At the Easter Vigil) In the radiant splendor of this most holy night, let us pray to the God whose mighty deeds we have seen in the deliverance of God's people through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, saying: Alleluia! Hear our prayer.

Intercessor (On Easter Day) On this day that the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad as we pray to the God who raised Jesus from the dead, saying: Alleluia! Hear our prayer.

For the Church, especially for Sean our Presiding Bishop, Kevin our bishop and Audrey, bishop of Central Pennsylvania, that we may be signs of Christ's light for all who have lived in darkness, of hope for all who know pain and suffering, and of love for all who have been rejected. Alleluia! Hear our prayer.

For this parish family, that we may be strong in faith, confident in hope, abounding with love for God and neighbor, and witnesses to the Risen Christ in our words and deeds. Alleluia! Hear our prayer.

For all the human family, and especially the people of Ukraine, Israel and Gaza, that God will keep them safe and bring them to a springtime of hope and peace. Alleluia! Hear our prayer.

For the leaders of the nations and all those in positions of public trust and leadership, that God will strengthen them with wisdom, patience, and a desire to open new channels for peace and reconciliation. Alleluia! Hear our prayer.

For all those who cannot be with family and loved ones, that as they hear the Good News of the Resurrection, they may be bound together in love. Alleluia! Hear our prayer.

For all those who have died that they may live forever with Christ in the glory of the resurrection. Alleluia! Hear our prayer.

Lifting our voices with all creation, with Mary the God-bearer and all the saints who have borne witness to the Risen Christ, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ. Alleluia! To you, O Risen Lord, we give praise and glory.

Celebrant Blessed are you, O Holy God, who destroyed death and brought life and immortality to light, hear the prayers we offer in the hope of eternal glory, and grant that we who have received new life in baptism may live forever in the joy of the resurrection. Glory to you, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, now and always and unto the ages of ages.
Amen.

Some Easter Customs

The Great Fifty Days begins with Easter Day and concludes on the Day of Pentecost. The seven weeks that span the time between Jesus' resurrection and the sending of the Spirit are sometimes called "a week of weeks." Historically this was also the time when all the mysteries of the Christian faith were revealed to the newly baptized. During this time the lectionary texts help us explore the mysteries of faith expressed in sacrament, word, and life lived for others.

The Easter Greeting "Alleluia! Christ is risen. The Lord is risen indeed, Alleluia!" is used at the beginning of all liturgies and before the sermon.

Alleluia (from the Hebrew Halleluya for "praise God") is restored to the liturgy and is used frequently as a superlative expression of triumph, thanksgiving and joy.

The Paschal Candle symbolizing the light of the Risen Christ burns at all services through the Day of Pentecost.

Christ Our Passover (the Easter Canticle, BCP, p. 83) may be used as the Invitatory Canticle at Morning Prayer and as the Hymn of Praise at the Eucharist. (WLP 880 is a metrical version to a familiar tune).

The Penitential Order may be omitted.

Standing for Prayer was the universal position for prayer until late in the Middle Ages. The Council of Nicea (AD 325) forbade kneeling for prayer on Sundays and during the Great Fifty Days of Easter.
